

THE CRYPTOGRAM

Scientific Journal of Cryptanalysis

United States Defense Department
Washington, D. C.

December 4, 1953

Dear Sir:

In a United Press release dated November 24th, 1953 it mentioned the fact that the Pentagon is acting to declassify thousands of secret papers. That this security information shall be declassified as of December 15th, 1953.

In view of this declassification, I am very much interested in knowing if the following titles will become available:

Military Cryptography
Advanced Military Cryptography
Military Cryptanalysis Part I
Military Cryptanalysis Part II
Military Cryptanalysis Part III
Military Cryptanalysis Part IV
Military Cryptanalysis Part V
Military Cipher Machines

All of these titles were listed as restricted material. If these particular titles are now available, I'd appreciate it very much if you would send me this information, plus the price of each title.

Thanking you very much for your kindness and consideration in this matter, I am

Very sincerely yours,

/s/ Henry E. Langen
Henry E. Langen, Editor
"The Cryptogram"
American Cryptogram Association

14 Mill Road.,
Maple Shade, N. J.

Title 18
Section 799
USC