

[redacted] called (1130, Monday):

When he arrived back in Washington he intended to come out to see you, but had to return to Princeton immediately for a meeting.

In regard to [redacted] [redacted] did talk with him about coming over here on a temporary basis for only a month or two, with that time split between NSA and Princeton. The discussions on the subject only concerned a temporary visit. [redacted] had previously discussed this ("2 or 3 times") with Dr. Leibler.

[redacted] seems anxious to talk with you about his visit to GCHQ. [He is writing a "sort of diary" on it] He said he could come down this Friday, or the 7, 8, 14, or 15th of Oct.

I told him that, if you thought it advisable for him to come down here soon, you would call him, and that if it wasn't necessary for a week or so, you would write him a note.

He is very anxious that there be no misunderstanding about his talks with

JGM